School Accountability Report Card

Reported Using Data from the 2018-19 School Year

Published During 2019-20

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest web page at <https://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2019-20)

School and Program Description

Relevant Curriculum

The education experience at Northwest Prep for both students and teachers is contextual, active, and authentic. Project-Based work and field studies are the norm. Academic competencies are integrated with professional skills and guided by the Driving and Guiding questions developed by students and staff. Each semester's long-term whole school project is driven by an over-arching Driving Question. The curriculum in all classes is carefully designed to scaffold and build student's knowledge and abilities to be able to adequately and appropriately address this question and Guiding Questions through a series of formative benchmarks, and finally through summative, high stakes Academic Exhibitions.

Personalized Learning

At NWP every student is well known and respected. NWP's enrollment of 107 students, and staff of 9 teachers, including the school's Principal, are small by design. Students are blended in cohorts in grades 7/8, 9/10 and 11/12 for most classes, but during all long-term projects student "teams" include all grade levels 7-12. Teachers share responsibility for all of NWP's students and work with them all over several years. Advisors serve as advocates for their students, and as a liaison between staff, students, and parents. Teachers also facilitate NWP's Crossroads program.

Authentic and Powerful Accountability

Students, parents and staff use a broad range of approaches to measure academic and personal growth. The most important and valuable assessment is consistent conversation. This is the norm in all NWP classes. Conversation, facilitation, and mediation regarding student work and overall process occurs one-on-one, with small groups, and through seminars. Both students and teachers routinely examine progress and proficiency using systematic inquiry and reflection. Students employ personal web portals to compile and share digital portfolios, collaborate with peers on project benchmarks, post blogs, video conference, archive work, and post work for peer and teacher evaluation. All students participate in culminating Academic Exhibitions where they are evaluated by members of the entire school community. Prior to graduation each student must formally present and defend a multimedia portfolio of work and experiences that demonstrates evidence that they have achieved proficiency in Northwest Prep's Leadership Skills (see below).

A Community of Learners

Northwest Prep's students, staff, and parents are active participants in a truly collective endeavor focused on instilling in students a desire to develop successful habits of mind, and an appreciation for the importance of continuing education. We work hard to develop strong positive relationships and a culture of appreciation, trust, and respect within the entire school community. Students produce whole-school Community Meetings where they communicate important information, showcase student talents and accomplishments (music, poetry, athletics, etc.), and address issues they feel are important in town hall styled forums.

Real World Immersion

Though Northwest Prep is a small educational enclave, it is not an island. Students and staff work to regularly find opportunities for students to interact with other students, and successful adults, in the community and beyond. Northwest Prep encourages and accommodates students to take classes at Santa Rosa Junior College, and Sonoma State University, as well as online courses in areas that we can't offer due to staffing constraints. In the course of their project work, students are required to interact with experts in the fields that they are exploring, and with professional mentors with whom they are communicating, job shadowing, or interning with in the Crossroads program. Students are also required to communicate through email or video-conferencing with students from other communities and even countries in order to gain diverse perspectives on project topics and issues.

NWP's Crossroads program guides students through multi-year college and career exploration, job shadows, and professional internships. All students are also taught professional public speaking and communication skills on an ongoing basis. The main goal of the program is to, over time, create individualized pathways for each NWP student. When students leave Northwest Prep, they leave with an informed plan for their future. Grades 7 and 8 focus on exploring their interests, abilities, and talents. Grades 9 and 10 focus on exploration of the vast range of careers and different types of colleges and training programs that prepare students for them. Grades 11 and 12 learn how to identify and secure professional internships and develop a plan to actively contribute in their placement. NWP links students to all levels and fields of the professional workplace. We provide students with the opportunity to apply the many practical benefits from their PBL experience, to provide a service to their mentors and their organizations, and to further develop their professional and academic skills. The Crossroads experience empowers student's ability to make informed choices for life after high school.

NWP Leadership Skills are the foundation of the Northwest Prep program. They are the backbone of NWP's school culture, curricular goals, and the basis for assessment of each student's progress and growth. When students leave Northwest Prep for targeted post-secondary experiences, they leave proficient in all of the Leadership Skills. We know from our graduates that students who are truly proficient in these skills, will be successful no matter what path they choose after high school.

Personal Integrity

Students handle themselves with confidence and act with honesty and courage. They commit to their developing beliefs and are willing to assume roles as inquiring observers, active participants, and dynamic leaders. They demonstrate positive working relationships across diverse groups, accept personal responsibility for their actions, and remain open to learning from the feedback and guidance of others.

Productive Collaboration

Students develop and use the skills necessary to plan and engage in group projects. They work to resolve social and logistical conflicts and devise solutions to meet diverse needs. They collectively set goals and develop strategies to meet those goals. They evaluate the effectiveness of their approach and constructively adapt to new understandings as they arise.

Critical and Creative Thinking

Students identify problems and pursue opportunities from multiple perspectives. They locate, organize, analyze, and apply key information in inventive and imaginative ways. They design, evaluate, and employ a variety of strategies, tools, and skills to achieve innovative results. Students are independent, creative, and critical thinkers who question and connect to the world around them from both big picture and focused perspectives.

Effective Communication

Students understand and practice effective communication using verbal and nonverbal language with intent, awareness, and accuracy. They are empathetic, emotionally intelligent, persuasive, and articulate. They are skillful self-advocates who effectively communicate their needs. Students internalize and present their understandings and ideas with confidence and clarity. Employing a variety of media, they use practical, academic, and artistic abilities to convey meaning in a clear and engaging fashion.

Reflective Learning

Students excel at making critical observations about their own learning and potential. They formulate meaningful and relevant questions that inspire and encourage further inquiry. Students consistently take charge of their education by reflecting upon and revising their own practices.

Citizenship and Global Responsibility

Students are engaged and informed citizens. They are empowered to create positive change in themselves, their communities, and the world. They are mindful and principled decision makers who understand the long and short-term effects of their actions on others and the environment. They practice compassionate, ethical, and active citizenship in local, global, and virtual settings. Students strive to achieve balance between their own needs and the needs of others.

Resiliency and Drive

Students are adept at taking intelligent risks and view mistakes as necessary steps toward learning and growth. They consciously identify their intentions and desires. They possess the tenacity and determination to work individually and collaboratively. They are self-motivated and self-regulated. Northwest Prep students confront challenges and persevere through adversity.

School Purpose and Expected School Wide Learning Results

Northwest Prep Charter School is a small, personalized, rigorous learning community where students are deeply engaged in, and thoughtful about, their learning. Teachers know students well and guide them towards expected outcomes by teaching them to ask good questions, and identify and solve meaningful problems. All students participate in a standards-based, academically rigorous Workplace Learning Program that allows them to interact with successful adults, apply their talents to real world challenges, and exhibit their skills and problem-solving abilities. Northwest Prep features standards-based, project and problem-based instruction, integrated curriculum, advanced technology, visual and performing arts, and performance-based assessments.

Upon graduation all NWP students are expected to have become highly proficient in all of the NWP Leadership Skills, present a Graduation Portfolio Defense, and be well-prepared for college and the workplace.

Northwest Prep Expected Schoolwide Learning Outcomes (ESLR's)

The Northwest Prep Leadership Skills have been adopted as the Expected Schoolwide Learning Results (ESLRs). Students are evaluated each semester on their growth in each of the Leadership Skills. In order to graduate from NWP, students must demonstrate evidence of proficiency, and receive an assessment of “capable” or “excellent” on all Leadership Skills in their Graduation Portfolio.

NWP Academic Performance Outcomes

- Read critically and write persuasively in the English language
- Recognize and describe relationships and patterns mathematically to solve concrete and abstract problems

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

- Statewide assessments (i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System, which includes the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessments [CAAs] for English language arts/literacy [ELA] and mathematics given in grades three through eight and grade eleven. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAAs items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities); and
- The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

Note: Percentages are not calculated when the number of students tested is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

Note: ELA and mathematics test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The "Percent Met or Exceeded" is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard (i.e., achieved Level 3-Alternate) on the CAAs divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

Career Technical Education Programs (School Year 2018-19)

One of the major goals of Northwest Prep is for students to develop an understanding about the connection between their education and their future success in the workplace. From middle school throughout high school students participate in NWP's Crossroads program which includes: career awareness, career education and career exploration through both school-based and work-based learning experiences. This includes career education classes, job seeking skills training, service and community learning, career speakers, job shadowing and professional long-term internships.

C. Engagement

State Priority: Parental Involvement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Parental Involvement (Priority 3):

- Efforts the school district makes to seek parent input in making decisions for the school district and each school site.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement (School Year 2019-20)

There are a variety of ways for parents to become a very important part of the school community.

Parents can select from activities that occur during the school day, after school hours and on the weekends. The school depends on input from parents as members of the School Leadership Team and the Northwest Prep Parent-Student-Teacher Organization (PTSO). The Leadership Team and the PTSO includes parent and student membership. These group meet monthly and serve in an advisory capacity to the Principal and staff in matters related to curriculum and school policies. The Leadership Team and PTSO includes parent members who focus their input in areas including career exploration and Internship development, fundraising, parent volunteers, public relations, and school events as well as providing input and review of NWP's Charter, safety plan, and WASC plan. Additionally, parents work with students and teachers in by volunteering in classrooms, chaperoning field trips and extra curricular activities, coaching, and participating in campus workdays. To make this happen :

Parents need access to up-to-date information on school events, student learning activities, and a clear understanding of instructional goals to support their child's education.

Parents need to feel a sense of connection and engagement with the school community.

Parents can answer annual questionnaires sent home in summer packet for parents to fill out, informing the school of what skills they would like to share with students, ability to participate in school events, drive for field trips, or provide job shadowing or internship opportunities for students.

Parents also take part in the Healthy Kids survey and the MyVoice survey helping give feedback on academic and community issues.

Metrics:

- Attendance at school events.
- # Parent volunteers
- Engagement statistics on social media sites, website and e-newsletters.
- Attendance at Parent Forum Nights
- Serving as guest speakers, parents share their careers, offer internship and job shadow opportunities.

State Priority: Pupil Engagement

School Safety Plan (School Year 2019-20)

A comprehensive safety plan is in place. The plan includes elements that address general procedures and emergency situations. It assures the safety of students and staff in case of any routine or disaster emergency situation. It includes a communication plan with the district office and other district schools.

Northwest Prep staff and community value a school where students learn in an environment that is safe, supportive, and free from outside interference and harm. We emphasize the development of safety, respect, responsibility and communication. The school community models and reinforces positive and courteous behavior.

The following are strategies used to support this goal:

Development of school wide rules and expectations/consequences

School wide participation in community building activities during the school year of to help familiarize students with expectations and procedures, and to get to know members of the school community

Class Advisories where classroom meetings are held

Training and support of playground supervisors

Disciplinary issues are handled by the classroom teachers and referred to the Principal as needed by a referral process. Board Policies and Education Code provide the framework for school wide policies. The staff works collaboratively to provide interventions which support positive student behaviors.
